The whereabouts on the night [illegible] and the whereabouts of his roommate and other persons. Some testimony was adduced to [illegible] that a saloon keeper named [illegible] testified that no students in citizen's clothes visited his place

Died

PORTSMOUTH N H, April 20—Capt. Jos. Homagen, of the U S revenue marine service, died this A M of malignant throat disease. Yesterday his wife died of the same disease

Grant at Galena

GALENA, April 20—General Grant arrived and had a hearty reception

The Old Massachusetts Sixth.

BALTIMORE, April 20—A number of survivors of the old sixth Massachusetts regiment were guests to-day of several posts G. A. R., of this city, the occasion being the nineteenth anniversary of the attack upon that regiment while marching through Baltimore for Washington, under the first call of President Lincoln for troops in '61

Reception on the Columbia.

NEW YORK, April 24—Cards are out inviting a select company to a reception and inspection of the new steamer Columbia, of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, on Tuesday next. She will sail soon with a full cargo of rolling stock for the Oregon Railway Co

Murder and Suicide

NELSONVILLE O, April 25—James Fennel local policeman, shot and killed Charles Cooley, who had made an objectionable remark about him, and then shot himself, probably fatally

Novel Method of Robbery.

NEW YORK, April 24—At 10 o'clock to-night the patrons of the Monte Carlo gambling room were thrown into consternation by a terrible explosion. It seems that a large cartridge was put under a clock on the mantelpiece near the Trente Quarante table. The force of the explosion was so great that it shattered the windows. The lights were extinguished, and a scene of most terrific disorder ensued. Hundreds of people rushed wildly about in every direction. Many persons fainted, and a large number were seriously wounded by the falling glass of chandeliers. The explosion was the work of a number of robbers, who succeeded in getting away with upwards of 150,000 francs. In the panic which followed several persons were trampled under foot, and the number of those injured in one way or another is very large. One end of the main room was completely wrecked.

The Vermont Democratic Convention.

MONTPELIER, April 21—The democratic state convention met to-day. Four hundred were present. W. H. H. Bingham, of Stowe, was made president. Lucius Robinson, L. W. Roddington, B B Smalley and James H. Williams were chosen delegates to the national convention with alternates. A resolution reciting that Hayes' elevation to the presidency was procured by outrageous and demoralizing frauds, was referred to the committee on resolutions. All district delegates chosen are so far Hancock men.

A Distressing Case.

MADISON (Ind) April 24—Graham Clousby's team became fractious while being driven upon the ferry flat at Wickliffe landing, on Kentucky river, yesterday, and his mother, sister and Miss Miller and the horses were plunged into the river and drowned. The young man, who was on his way to be married, narrowly escaped death.

Failure of Crops in Kansas.

ST. LOUIS, April 22—A special from Kansas City says that advices from western Kansas report that drought and unfavorable weather have totally destroyed the wheat crop west of Salina, and that there will be a partial failure of the crop for 100 miles north and south of Topeka. Farmers in the western part of the state are suffering and appealing to the executive office at Topeka for help

Garfield Talks—His Opinion of Justice Field.

CHICAGO, April 23—A correspondent interviewed Gen Garfield on politics. He thought it likely that Sherman would get Ohio solid with Blaine as second choice. He thought that the appearances indicated the final nomination of Grant; democrats seemed all at sea and were afraid of Tilden. He said that he thought they would nominate Judge Field, as he has some strong points not possessed by the generality of their candidates. In the first place he was an out and out war democrat. Although of a democratic family, they were all union men and no one more so than he. "The cry of 'Copperhead' cannot be raised against him. As soon as the war was over he took a democratic position and has almost uniformly written a dissenting opinion against the majority of the supreme court in favor of state rights and limited federal powers. Then he has been sound on the currency. He took a position for resumption and maintained it throughout. The fact that Mr. Lincoln placed him on the supreme bench is a testimonial to his purity of character and knowledge of the law. He belongs to a powerful family which would give him every means to conduct his campaign if he should be nominated. I think also that he stands in good relations with all other democratic candidates Tilden included. Garfield had found the Germans against Grant because they feared he would usurp power. This he considered entirely groundless.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Postal Revenue.

WASHINGTON April 21—The postal revenue for the coming year will undoubtedly be much greater than estimates. The amount of postage stamps, stamped envelopes and postal cards issued to postmasters upon requisition during the nine months ending March 31st last, was 23,979,335 an increase of over 11 per cent.

A Sitka Claim

Senator Booth to-day presented a petition from Wm. L. Dodge of California praying compensation for certain buildings and land at Sitka which he claims to have purchased from the Russian American company, but which the U S military authorities in 1869 forcibly appropriated and have since held or public use.

The Proposed Denver Building.

Senator Hill's bill providing for the erection of a public building at Denver passed the senate to-day with an immaterial amendment. It appropriates $75,000 for purchasing a site and commencing work on the building. The total cost is limited to $250,000 But this limitation will undoubtedly be disregarded as usual heretofore

A New Post

On motion of McGinnis to lay the house of representatives passed a bill appropriating $20,000 for the establishment of a new military post on Mussel Shell river for the protection of the Mussel Shell and Judith basins, where there are large stock ranges in extensive and where rich placer mines have recently been discovered.

Extension of Time to the Northern Pacific Railroad

WASHINGTON, April 19—The railroad committee will report a measure relating to the Northern Pacific railroad. It is senator Windom's bill, amending his motion so as to make the time of extension six years instead of ten and to provide in accordance with the policy already adopted by the company that agricultural lands in odd numbered sections shall be sold to actual settlers at not exceeding $2 50 per acre

Another amendment will provide that the title to lands thus sold shall be conveyed directly from the government but that such amendment is to be so framed that this requirement shall not interfere with the company's arrangement for exchanging lands for its bonds and preferred stock. The formulation of the amendments agreed upon may delay the report to the senate for a day or two. The vote by which the amended bill was ordered reported is as follows: Ayes—Ransom Lamar Grover Windom Dawes, Teller and Saunders—7 Nays—Eaton Pendleton Williams and Jones—4

THE MARSHFIELD HORROR.

Further Account of the Great Disaster

Every House in the Town Wrecked. Estimate of the Number Killed and Wounded, etc etc

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

ST LOUIS April 20—[illegible] description of the storm. This town and country were visited [illegible] destructive [illegible] recorded [illegible] After passing through [illegible] Christian [illegible] and Webster counties destroying everything in its pathway leveling houses, barns, mills and [illegible] it struck this town about 6 o'clock. Eye witnesses of its approach say that it was a fearful looking black cloud with fleecy white funnel shaped and moving in the manner of a screw propeller. It moved with wonderful velocity literally destroying and blowing away everything in its path which was half a mile wide at this point. Large sized trees were twisted off leaving [illegible] were stripped and the bark [illegible] peeled from small trees. Houses were blown from their foundations, cattle, horses, sheep, horses and poultry were whirled into the air and carried a great distance. The noise of the storm, crash of falling houses and cries and screams of terrified people made a scene of terror that beggars description. What was a beautiful quiet town of 800 people 24 hours ago is now a waste of desolation

ST LOUIS April 20—A child was found at Marshfield lodged in the crotch of a tree 30 feet above ground but slightly hurt. Four hundred dollars was raised to-day at Rolla for the sufferers at Marshfield and twelve doctors and nurses left here for that place to-night. At Gray's creek, four miles from Jefferson City seven houses were demolished and several of their inmates injured. A log house was blown into a deep cut on the Missouri Pacific railroad at that point, and a passenger train ran into it, ditching the engine severely wounding the engineer Jos. McCourt, and Jos Murphy the fireman

A special from Fulton Callaway county to the Republican says that a terrible storm passed through that county last night, doing an immense amount of damage to farm property besides destroying a number of houses. At New Bloomfield, Mrs Martz was killed by a falling house, and a negro girl was killed by lightning. Another special from California Mo says that a terrific storm visited the southern part of Moniteau county last night doing great injury to property and killing or wounding a number of persons. The storm first struck the little town of Barrellsville destroying almost every house in the place then passed down the valley toward the north demolishing nearly every building in its track

After the Storm

Capt C W Rogers general manager of the St Louis & San Francisco Railroad just received the following from D H. Nichols assistant superintendent. Advices are coming in constantly from different parts of the country showing that many were killed or injured in remote districts. It is believed many farmers families are destroyed and not yet reported. Seven of the wounded on James river died this afternoon and five at Marshfield. At the latter place all is confusion and the people are in such an excited state that it is impossible to get any intelligible report. Many families are homeless and have taken refuge in the depot and empty cars standing at the stations. The front room of the courthouse has been converted into a morgue. The school building is being used for a hospital. Up to 7 P M they have a death rate of 78 and the prospect of increasing it before morning. Many are yet missing and a number of people have been buried of whom no record was kept. It is impossible to get a list of the dead. A great many colored people were killed or injured, but no list has been prepared. Only fourteen buildings have been left standing and not a house in the town but is more or less injured,

Relief Measures.

ST LOUIS April 20—It will be several days before an accurate list of the killed and wounded can be furnished. The number of wounded is said to be 200, but many only slightly. Many merchants suffer a total loss of stock. One hundred and fifty families are left homeless and need provisions and clothing. Neighboring towns respond nobly. Mayor Oslerstoltz and other prominent citizens have telegrams from Marshfield stating the urgency of their needs and appealing for help. Money shelter and clothing are especially called for. All box cars of the St Louis and San Francisco railroad that can be spared are on the track for the shelter of families

Damage in Vicinity of Jefferson

ST LOUIS, MO, April 20—The people of Marshfield seem so excited, and there is so little order shown in keeping a record of the dead and wounded, that no accurate list is obtainable. Three thousand two hundred dollars was raised on change to-day for the sufferers and all sorts of supplies were sent. The storm it appears extended over the whole state causing great destruction of property and loss of life within 30 miles of Jefferson City. The house of Mr Baker was destroyed and his family severely injured. The house of George S Puhr was destroyed. Mrs John Summerman's hip was crushed. Henry Egger's leg broken and Mrs Antweiler badly hurt. It is reported that great damage and loss of life occurred at Russellville 35 miles southeast of Jefferson City, but nothing definite is reported. A town lying in Texas county was badly torn up and nearly destroyed. Prof Lee has gone to Marshfield and will make a scientific examination of all circumstances

Eighty-One Coffins.

ST LOUIS April 21—Telegrams from Marshfield announce less excitement prevailing, the dead being buried and carcasses of dead animals being hauled away. The best information is that 81 coffins have been used and there will probably be four or more deaths to-night

The Storm in Wisconsin—Some of the Losses

CHICAGO April 20—The following reports of the ravages by the storm are received by telegraph

In Rock county Wisconsin, the village of Shopiere was struck by the storm Sunday afternoon and torn up fearfully by the wind for two hours. The adjoining townships of Turtle La Prairie, Bradford and Johnstown suffered also in loss of cattle, buildings etc. the total damage in the county reaching probably $100,000. Among the chief losses are L D Mosley's blacksmith shop and house wrecked loss $10,000, Methodist church damaged $600, Geo Sears's large store mill torn to shreds $2000, two large barns and three fine horses owned by E J Dole, $5,000. Hon Wm H Stark's orchard was uprooted some of the trees being carried a long distance. Seventy hives of bees destroyed, fences on the farm destroyed, every window blown out of his house, barns wrecked and contents scattered and the family escaping destruction only by [illegible] to trees and lodging the [illegible] debris with which the air was filled. loss $1000. The house and barns of Thomas Holmes were torn [illegible] Mrs. Holmes and two children were [illegible] carried away in the [illegible]

[illegible] Charles Yonner's was [illegible]

[illegible] The family of [illegible] at Johnstown took refuge in the cellar and saw the house swept from above them. No trace of the contents of the house could be obtained. The county building and poor house were dismantled. The storm cut a swath as though of fire destroying every bit of vegetation in its way. It was accompanied by rain and hail at Manitowac. At Kossuth the storm was severe but not so destructive as elsewhere. Its path was from a quarter to an eighth of a mile wide

The storm in Illinois was most severe in the central part of the state. Champaign county suffering most but only minor damages to [illegible] resulted

A PROBABLE TALK

Some Points of Difference between the United States and the Colombian Government

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

WASHINGTON April 25—The president [illegible] the American consul at Aspinwall [illegible] to know why American men of war are lying at Chiriqui and Golfo Dolce. In ten or fourteen days he will be able to ask Mr Dickman, minister to Colombia who returns to his post of duty in the U S ship Tennessee. Mr Dickman goes out fully posted of the views of the administration and with ample instructions which will doubtless enable him to answer all the questions of the Colombian president and to ask some of his own. It will probably appear when the president and the minister come to compare notes that while Colombia knows nothing officially concerning the objects of the vessels of war in the waters the United States knows nothing officially concerning the bargain between DeLesseps and the Colombian government. Under these circumstances there will be room for enlightenment on both sides. It is supposable for instance that in answer to the Colombian president's questions Dickman may assure him that the United States being by treaty bound to guarantee the integrity of the Colombian territory have thought it convenient to establish coaling stations at the two points most accessible for this purpose and that no territorial aggrandisement is intended because congress would not consent to that and because it would be a shabby trick of this government—acting as guardian to Colombia—to rob her of part of her territory. Therefore Dickman may in his turn ask the Colombian president how it came about that he neglected to consult with the United States before he made certain concessions to DeLesseps and whether he does not now see that his failure to do so has made all the plans of Lesseps abortive because he is unable to raise money for the project which has been foolishly set on foot without consulting the United States which is by treaty a party in interest. It may happen at this stage of the conversation that Dickman finding the Colombian president a trifle obtuse will have to explain to him that the digging of a canal across the isthmus has a political as well as pecuniary and commercial feature that the enterprise has a supreme and vital interest not merely to the Colombian government but to all the republics of North and South America, and that as the most powerful of these, the United States for ourselves and for all the other republics must necessarily take the same position and active interest in construction of a Panama canal that Great Britain and France took in the construction of the Suez canal. He might, to enforce this view cite to the Colombian president that clause of the treaty of 1846 which declares that "in order to secure to themselves and the United States the tranquil and constant enjoyment of these advantages of secure transit, and as an especial compensation for the said advantages, and for other favors specially mentioned the United States guarantee positively and efficaciously the perfect neutrality of the isthmus"

THE SAN FRANCISCO MURDER

Facts, Theories and Speculations

An Unsuccessful Attempt to Interview the Kallochs—His House Under Guard, etc., etc

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

SAN FRANCISCO April [illegible] [illegible] Dr. H. H. Thrall residing [illegible] his wife and [illegible] statement [illegible] in the evening [illegible] Wednesday and Thursday two men [illegible] visited a house opposite their residence [illegible] and that last evening [illegible] before the shooting of Charles DeYoung, shortly after 8 o'clock Dr. [illegible] gibbering [illegible] the murder. Meantime two [illegible] the lights in the house were extinguished [illegible] relighted and [illegible] till a much later hour than usual. During the visit of the men supposed to be Kalloch and his son just before the shooting their motions were partly visible through a window and they seemed to be conducting themselves in an excited manner. An hour later a Chronicle reporter passing the house saw Kalloch's colored servant standing on the steps and a few minutes later a cab came up containing City Auditor Dunn ex Deputy Sheriff Clayton and a young man unknown. The two latter entered the house soon after came out entered a cab and drove in the direction of the new city hall. The Chronicle people profess to believe that these movements, coupled with sundry minor circumstances indicate that the killing of DeYoung was the result of a conspiracy between Kalloch and his son

Two detectives visited the house opposite Dr. Thrall's residence and found that Mayor Kalloch's colored servant who said he was ill with rheumatism, was occupying a room in the house. He was questioned at length but nothing of importance was elicited further than the fact that Kalloch and son had been in the habit of visiting him there during his illness

Kalloch's Residence Guarded

This evening a Call reporter drove to Mayor Kalloch's residence. On alighting he was confronted by half a dozen men who demanded to know his name and business. He informed them and said, "What are you doing here? Are you expecting Mike De Young to assassinate Kalloch?" "That's just what we are looking for," replied the men. On effecting communication with those in the house the reporter was informed that the mayor was asleep and that they would not disturb him when he left without obtaining any information. To what credence his story may be entitled is yet to be learned

That Pamphlet.

As regards the responsibility for the publication of the pamphlet heretofore referred to it is noticeable that the Chronicle this morning fails to deny in express terms any connection with it. After mentioning in its local account of the tragedy the Bulletin of this evening assigned the document as the provocation for the shooting. The Chronicle's article continues: The deceased only yesterday evening stated to the managing editor of the paper that he had been greatly annoyed by notes addressed to him requesting him to send copies of the pamphlet reflecting on Kalloch, that after some trouble he had succeeded in obtaining a copy that had been sent to a gentleman in this city. He expressed fears that the circulation of the document would do him injury and perhaps prejudice his case in court as the publication might be attributed to him and expressed hope that there were not many of them in existence

Mike De Young Interviewed—He Professes to have no Knowledge of the Pamphlet.

The Post publishes an interview with M. H. De Young brother of the late Charles De Young. On being asked what he considered the causes leading to the shooting he replied he did not know. Referring to the circulation of the previously mentioned pamphlet he said: "I do not know if that was his grievance or not. He certainly had no reason to think that my brother had anything to do with the pamphlets. We had nothing at all to do with them, and did not even know that they were in circulation, until shown one by a friend. I think that a certain Mr Shimmons, editor and proprietor of a Kansas City or Leavenworth paper who accused Kalloch of swindling him out of $14,000 put them into circulation here. This man has constantly attacked Kalloch in his paper and has avowed to make him disgorge. He was out here, I believe, a few weeks ago and finding that Kalloch was able to pay him he determined to get his money." Mr De Young further stated that the recent visit East of deceased had no connection with his trial. It was solely to make terms with paper manufacturers. On his way home he stopped a few days in Kansas and there learned of some damning facts against Kalloch, but it was not intended to use these facts or pamphlets at his brother's trial. Inquiry at the postoffice shows that the pamphlets began to come in last Wednesday and many were circulated on that day and Thursday and Friday. If the postmaster knows where they came from he for the present withholds information

Young Kalloch Declines to Talk.

Young Kalloch on being questioned this afternoon declined to answer the question as to whether he had evidence that De Young was the instigator of the pamphlet saying that it was in the hands of counsel and considered it more prudent to say nothing at present

The Feeling in San Francisco—Young Kalloch in the Police Court, etc., etc

Rumors that seem to have gotten abroad of great excitement in the city and danger of violence are utterly unfounded. There has been no excitement except that naturally attendant to such a tragedy and any resort to violence is scarcely thought of. On the contrary [illegible] during the [illegible] of the parties to the affair the community is but little disturbed. Dispatches already [illegible] seem to have pretty thoroughly exhausted the facts in connection with the Kalloch De Young affair. Nothing has been learned to throw any further light on the subject. The tragedy is the theme of universal comment in the street and the general impression seems to be that such a result might have been expected at any time during a number of years past owing to the personally [illegible] course that has always been [illegible] the Chronicle. Citizens deplore such recourse to violent means of redress and believe that the provocation in this case is altogether inadequate more particularly as Mayor Kalloch who was the object of the Chronicle's assault is amply capable of fighting his own battles. [illegible] there is not [illegible] any marked expression of grief or indignation except on the part of personal friends of the deceased. During the forenoon business has been going on as usual in the [illegible] the Chronicle [illegible]

with the Chronicle eminently [illegible] the interest of [illegible] peace and good order

Details of the Funeral. The Scene at the Cemetery

SAN FRANCISCO [illegible] The funeral of Charles De Young took place this afternoon from [illegible] residence [illegible]

[illegible] was a member [illegible] several [illegible] gathered [illegible]

[illegible] to take a last [illegible] had filled so prominent a place in the annals of local affairs. [illegible] largely represented [illegible] the press of the city. After services at the house the procession [illegible] the Odd Fellows hall [illegible] followed by [illegible] and others [illegible] to the Odd Fellows cemetery where [illegible] rites were observed

The [illegible] was profuse and beautifully [illegible] with flowers. The mother of the deceased was not present during the funeral services remaining in her room broken down with grief. She has not looked upon the face of her son since his death saying that she wished to preserve her remembrance of him as he last appeared in life

Rev [illegible] conducted the services at the house delivering a brief sermon and offering a prayer after which the coffin was placed in a hearse and the procession started for the cemetery in the following order: Carriage carrying Dr Cohn and Odd Fellows and employees of the Chronicle on foot, numbering two hundred and hearse with the following bearers made up from Odd Fellows and employees of the Chronicle, viz: Alex Campbell A. H. Lloyd Raphael Weill, Moses Keller Dr G Holbrand A B Henderson [illegible] John P Jones B A Wardell John Timmins E J Anderson Major [illegible] J N Jacobs John McWilliams John Laus Henry H Lebbing and Paul Keyser. The mourners and friends followed in some thirty carriages. On arriving at the cemetery an immense crowd was found awaiting arrival of the procession street car lines having been taxed during the morning. The coffin was placed on a stretcher in front of the Odd Fellows receiving vault and Past Grand Alexander read the Odd Fellows ritual after which the coffin was removed to the vault. The relatives then took a last view of the remains and the procession returned to town and the crowd dispersed. At the sand lot to-day no mention was made of the Kalloch DeYoung affair, the speakers it is understood, acting under instructions from the ward presidents

RIVAL CONVENTIONS

The Divided New York Democracy at Syracuse

Uncompromising Attitude of Both Factions—No Word from Uncle Sammy.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

SYRACUSE April 20—There was a great crush at both the rival democratic conventions. Lester B. Faulkner called the regular convention to order and said that democrats will not bow to faction and sacrifice principles for success. They had taken that stand in nominating Robinson. The name of Tilden was received with mingled applause and hisses. The speaker declared Hayes elevated to the presidency by fraud and that Tilden forebore the assertion of his right out of regard to peace. He was not informed whether Tilden would again accept a call to official position. He was never beaten and never would be. Senator Jacobs was chosen temporary chairman

During roll call there was much confusion. Seymour's name being mentioned caused cheers and hisses. A deputation from the Kelly convention appeared asking a conference. The chair said that the matter would be placed before the convention later

A resolution was adopted that the delegates from the several congressional districts select one member from each district for a committee on credentials and the question of conference with the Kelly convention was referred to the committee on resolutions. Several congressional district delegations were then authorized to name one delegate from each district to the national convention

The convention reassembled at 4 o'clock. Committees on organization contested seats and resolutions were appointed and the convention took a recess.

The Kelly or Anti-Tilden Convention.

SYRACUSE April 20—The Kelly or anti Tilden convention filled Shakespeare Hall. A Dorsheimer was chosen temporary chairman. He spoke in behalf of harmony and consolidation on some candidate who could unite the whole party strength. Those who thought otherwise must take the responsibility. He named Seymour as the man who would lead the democrats to triumph. (Wild cheers.) Committees were appointed and Parker offered a resolution for a conference committee to the Tilden convention so as to secure a united delegation to the Cincinnati convention

The anti Tilden convention reassembled at 4:25. Committees were appointed and a resolution adopted that the delegates from each congressional district appoint two delegates and alternates to the Cincinnati convention

John Kelly was vociferously called for and cheered. He briefly protested against Tilden's nomination as a disgrace to the party and the country.

Amasa J. Parker was made permanent chairman and made a speech. Resolutions were adopted offering adherence to Democratic principles and party urging unity of action among democrats everywhere against republicans, urging an unpledged delegation from New York declaring Tilden's nomination fatal to the party and treason to the cause on account of the powerful opposition to him declaring that the democracy of New York had been forced into their present attitude through their fidelity to principle and devotion to the democracy of the nation, and promise to stand by the party in enthusiastic support of any worthy representative democrat for president

An address to the democracy of New York and the United States accompanies the resolutions which denounces Tilden as personally false to the democracy and dangerous to the republic declaring him unfit for office and sure of defeat: the extravagance and misrule of his political career that he has been selfish treacherous and dishonorable, that his name is connected with attempts to bribe electors with the cipher dispatches and that his nomination would assure the knell of democratic defeat as hundreds of democrats could not vote for him. Recess

The convention reassembled at 8:30. Kelly reported the following names of presidential electors at large: At large, Amasa J. Parker, Wm Dorsheimer, Jeremiah M'Guire, G C Green; Alternates, Isaac W McConnell, F. J. Wood. Jas S. Thayer, A. Anson S. Page. Electors at large: August Schell, Erastus Corning

The Scarring of the Conventions. An Opposing Minority in the Tilden Meeting

The Tilden convention finished up its work to-day with infinitesimal resolutions making no concession to the anti-Tilden sentiment notwithstanding a constituted a strong though powerless minority [illegible]. The Tammany convention was equally [illegible] in its attitude and it seems now inevitable that if Tilden is nominated in Cincinnati the split which defeated Governor Robinson last year will continue through the presidential campaign. The Tammany convention was a fine body of representative men and created a profound impression by the dignity and force of its proceedings. There is complaining [illegible] the fact that the Tilden convention has been [illegible]

ELECTION OF STATE PRINTER.

By the death of W. B. Carter, state printer a vacancy occurs which it will be necessary to fill at the coming election. The several party conventions having already been held we may suppose that candidates will be named by the state central committees. We mention the matter at this time for the reason that only a few weeks will intervene between now and the election, and a considerable time must elapse before the committees can assemble pursuant to call.

The rule as to holding an election in case of a vacancy like this seems to be well established. The constitution of the state, article five, section sixteen, provides that "when, during a recess of the legislative assembly, a vacancy shall happen in any office, the appointment of which is vested in the legislative assembly, or when at any time a vacancy shall have occurred in any other state office, or in the office of judge of any court, the governor shall fill such vacancy by appointment, which shall expire when a successor shall have been elected and qualified." Under construction of this section the governor may now appoint a state printer, but such appointee can hold the office only until the people fill it by election, which they may do at the coming election in June.

In state of Oregon vs. Johns (3d Oregon 533) it was held that when the governor makes an appointment to fill a vacancy occasioned by death or resignation, such appointee can only hold the office until the first general election after the vacancy occurs. Furthermore, as it has been held that the term of office attaches to the person of the individual holding the same, and as the term of office of the state printer is four years, the person who shall be elected state printer in June next will not be chosen to fill an unexpired term, but will be entitled to hold for the full term of four years. The court, in the case above referred to, speaking of appointments by the governor to fill vacancies, said: "The power reposed in the executive by section sixteen, article five of the constitution is not absolute, but limited and qualified, and was only reposed in him for the purpose of filling vacancies in office until such times as the people, the repository of all power, could act thereon and fill them, as at the recurrence of a general election. The persons so appointed merely hold office temporarily, so that the public business may not be retarded or disturbed by the death or resignation of the elected incumbent."

This leaves no room for dispute as to whether a state printer, the office now being vacant, may be elected in June next. Such election will be legal. The question as to length of term for which such official, so chosen, is to be elected, may also be regarded as settled by the same case. The constitution provides that "there shall be elected in each county for the term of four years a county judge, who shall hold the county court at times to be regulated by law." It also provides that "there shall be elected at the times and places of choosing members of the legislature, a state printer, who shall hold his office for the term of four years." In Linn, a county judge was elected in June, 1866, but died shortly after entering into office. The executive filled the vacancy by appointment, which lasted until the next election, in June, 1868, when a successor was chosen. Again, in June, 1870, at the regular election, candidates for the county judgeship were voted for, under the supposition that the incumbent, elected two years before, was only filling an unexpired term. But the said incumbent refused to deliver up the office to the person who had received a majority of the votes, and the court held in his favor, on the ground that the term of an office attaches to the person of the individual, and that whenever a county judge is elected, his term of office continues four years, unless terminated by death or resignation. The rule thus laid down exactly meets this case; and hence it seems clear that there is now a state printer to be elected for the term of four years.

It would hardly appear conclusive that a man should be elected a justice of the supreme court simply because he is tending towards old age, and has no other quality of positive fitness to recommend him. Take the case of Judge Kelly. He has held several public employments which would have afforded scope and opportunity for display of talents. Can any one say that his talents, as displayed in any one of these employments, have been at all conspicuous? Have they, indeed, to speak as favorably as possible, risen above the most ordinary level of commonplace mediocrity? We have not heard that as a lawyer he has ever been distinguished by great powers, or won any notable honors. As a senator his career furnished nothing memorable, if we except the connection of his name with the cipher dispatches. As a judge his decisions certainly do not promise to become permanent contributions to judicial literature. It does not appear that he or his associate, Judge Prim, has done anything which might not have been better done by men under 25 years of age, and that without doing any great credit to themselves, either. It would be better if these candidates who are commended mainly because they are getting on in years were twenty-five years younger than they are. For, twenty five years ago, they had no more industry, clearer judgment and better capacity for good work than now. Time does not always bring increase of useful knowledge. Weight of years is no sure guarantee of wisdom. The oracular pretensions of age are often as absurd as the most shallow claims of youthful presumption, and frequently less tolerable. Age has its high privileges and its credentials to respect; but when it puts its claims on the ground of large and varied powers, developed through long experience—that is, on the ground of superior wisdom for counsel and for affairs,—it must be able to support its claims with something more than a show of gravity, or as Bacon puts it, of "seeming wise."

There is no small number of persons throughout the state to whom it will be a shock to hear of the death of William B. Carter of Corvallis, state printer and publisher of the Corvallis Gazette. The friendship felt for Mr. Carter was as extensive as the acquaintance he possessed. Though a man of positive opinions, he had no enemies. While he never surrendered his convictions, he won respect for the courtesy with which he maintained them. He was a native of Springfield, Ill., and crossed the plains in 1852 with B. R. Biddle of Corvallis. For many years he was a resident of Portland, being connected with the publication of the Pacific Christian Advocate. For the last twelve years he has been editor and publisher of the Corvallis Gazette. His age at the time of his death was about forty one years. He leaves a memory untarnished by any act which, on quitting the world, he could have wished to blot.

A report obtains currency through Chicago journals of an intention on the part of James Gordon Bennett to establish a chain of two-cent morning newspapers from New York to the Pacific coast, and including such cities as Buffalo, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Chicago, Kansas City and San Francisco. It is understood that Mr. John Russell Young, who is to have the general management of the two-cent journalistic belt, was lately in Cincinnati for the purpose of making arrangements, and that he is now engaged in preparing for the early inception of the large enterprise. The papers will, it is said, be backed by Mr. Bennett's capital, will share in the Herald's telegraphic system and facilities, and will be, like the Herald, independent as to politics.

The iron manufacturers of Pennsylvania who were not satisfied with fair living prices are now beginning to see the folly of advancing from one to two hundred per cent. Their greed created strikes at home and a rush of foreign goods which could be placed on the American market cheaper than the Pennsylvanians were willing to sell. They are now compelled to compete with foreign manufacturers and prices are tumbling as rapidly as they advanced six months ago to the detriment of trade, as jobbers are slow to purchase in a declining market.

The interest on the public debt of the United States the year following the close of the war was nearly $144,000,000. At the present time the interest charge is a little less than $82,000,000, and before the close of 1881 the annual interest will be down to $70,000,000. Judged by these results the candid and intelligent critic cannot find ground to condemn the republican party for its management of the great burden of debt resulting from the state sovereignty rebellion.

We are receiving a mass of dispatches detained several days on account of the interruption of the wires by the storms in the Sierras. Many of them are in confusion, and some have failed to come through entire. This statement is given in explanation of the incompleteness of some dispatches and the want of continuity in others.

Referring to the suspicion that Mr. Vanderbilt, if he keeps on investing in United States bonds, may finally own the entire national debt, the Boston Herald suggests the possible purpose of Vanderbilt to burn patriotically the bonds and thus cancel Uncle Sam's indebtedness. Rich men may not be created in vain.

The North Pacific Rural Spirit has become by far the best agricultural paper in Oregon. It now begins its second year. Published weekly by Baker, Bull & Co., Portland, at $1.50 a year.

MONDAY MORNING APRIL 26 1880

Accidentally Poisoned —Yesterday morning Charles Lambert a young man about 19 years old engaged as clerk in Wiberg & Kiernan's, and rooming at H McBride's, on Washington street near Seventh was accidentally poisoned by swallowing nearly an ounce of carbolic acid He had been ill and his attending physician ordered a simple prescription, which was sent to his room in an ounce regulation vial Lambert having become alarmed at the false report of smallpox several days ago purchased an ounce of carbolic acid, which was kept on the stand in his room in exactly the same shaped vial as that in which the prescription was furnished Both vials were on the stand the prescription out of sight behind a bowl and the acid in full view the label turned towards the wall Mr McBride had seen the prescription when it arrived from the druggist and read the directions all to be given at one dose Coming in Lambert's room to administer the medicine, he innocently picked up the acid bottle, and pouring out the entire contents, gave the burning poison He immediately discovered the mistake and as soon as possible procured a quart of milk which was forced down the throat of the now insensible sufferer It had the effect of partially neutralizing the poison and produced excessive vomiting Drs F B Eaton and Henry Jones were called and used every means known to the profession to save the life of the young man He lay unconscious until 1 o'clock, when, in order to secure the best attention, he was conveyed to St Vincent's Hospital. Upon arriving there he returned to consciousness and the attending physicians late last night had slight hopes for his recovery Lambert came here a few months ago from Corvallis, where he has been attending college for four years He is spoken of by his employers as a worthy honorable and industrious young man

A Serious Accident —On last Friday while the steamer Bonita was lying at Westport, a man named James Mackin rowed up the river in a skiff alongside of the steamer not thinking the steamer would depart as soon as she did About the time he had got to the stern of the steamer she backed out and his boat was caught and crushed in the wheel. Mackin was also caught, and had gone one-third round the wheel when his cries and shrieks were heard by Mr Fred Gates, the engineer who immediately stopped the steamer The unfortunate man was taken out, and was not supposed to be hurt at the time the steamer left on Friday n ght Mackin's condition was critical, and Capt. West telegraphed for the Emma Hayward to come out of her route and take him to Portland for medical treatment. He was brought up suffering terribly His injuries seem to be internal, in the groin and stomach No possible blame can be attached to the officers of the steamer

Faster Time Demanded —The contract of the postoffice department with the California & Oregon stage company requires that the fifty-two hour schedule between Roseburg and Redding go into effect May 1st taking the place of the one hundred hour schedule in winter months. Last year the fast time did not go into effect until July 1st The business relations between Oregon and California and the east demand that the time between Redding and Roseburg be shortened at least twenty-four hours by the 1st of May, and that the fifty-two hour schedule go into effect just as soon as the condition of the roads will permit The train from the south now arrives at Redding at 9:10 P M, three hours and twenty minutes earlier than last year, and the stage company will have that much more time to make its connection at Roseburg

Irish Famine Fund.—Says the Catholic Sentinel: "Monday last we forwarded to Sister Mary Frances Clare, through the Bank of British North America, a draft (No 29,) for £5 15s sterling, being the aggregate of $28 comprising the following subscriptions hitherto acknowledged. Rt. Rev Æ Junger, $16; M. Sullivan, Cathlamet, $8 J B. Comeford, Marysville, W T., and a friend at Nanaimo, $2 each This exhausts all funds received to date. Through the kindness of Rev. P Hylebos of Puget Sound the Sentinel has received $26 from the following residents of Steilacoom, W T Mrs Rigney, Miss Mary Rigney, John Rigney, Robert Rigney and Joseph Rigney $5 each Mr Dan. Collins, $1. This amount will be forwarded to the nun of Kenmare

Light Run of Salmon —The canneries above Astoria that have been in operation report the catch very light for this season of the year. The following canneries have been in operation since the first of the month Pillar Rock Co R D Hume & Co, J W & V Cook Hapgood & Co, Jackson & Myers, Fishing Packing Co. Eureka Co., Wm. Hume and James Quinn They have packed on an average about 300 cases each On Friday eight boats came to the canneries with from two to ten salmon A number of boats that had fished all night were, as fishermen say "disgusted and "skunked." Reports from Astoria show no better run than the above

Sanitary Inspection.—Lieut Col Elisha I Baily, medical director of the department of the Columbia, has been ordered to make a thorough sanitary inspection of all the buildings, outhouses and grounds connected therewith, appertaining to department head quarters, the quartermaster depot, the post of Vancouver barracks, and the Vancouver arsenal, rendering written report setting forth the condition in which found, and making such recommendations as, in his judgment, are requisite for their sanitary improvement

Declared a Nuisance.—At the last meeting of the board of trustees of East Portland, a petition was received from the property-holders on Fourth and L streets praying for the removal of the old brewery building on the northwest corner of Fourth and L streets, for the reason that said building is old decayed to a great extent, and, in the opinion of petitioners, endangers not only other private property, but also the bridge ways on both said streets Referred to street committee.

Warrant Issued —The state authorities yesterday issued a warrant calling for the arrest of Fred Hobneck and David McCarthy on a requisition issued by Gov Geo C. Perkins, of California, wherein I M Brown was appointed agent to receive and carry back to California said fugitives from justice These parties are the ones alluded to in The Oregonian a few days since as receiving and offering to receive a bribe in a celebrated murder case

Eleventh Anniversary —Eleven years ago to day the high school of Portland was organized This afternoon the eleventh anniversary will be commemorated at the Park street school by some very interesting exercises The gentlemen who composed the board of directors then—Wm Wadhams Judge E D Shattuck and Gen A L Lovejoy—have been invited to be present and witness the exercises

Passengers from Sitka —The steamer California brought the following passengers from Sitka J. Tessier, S Goldstein, C A Ainsky Dr. R W Kibbe and wife Mrs Fenwick W McAlister, S L French J Seary, W Brown T De chreff M Randall J Kisby F Hackett, T McCully, E M Keats A D McLeod, John Delaney A Moreth C Lundsay, I Roberts, J Smith, J Stevens A Campbell, B. Hibbard.

Special Policeman —From the Vindicator it is learned that a communication from the Ophir Temperance society notified the board at the last meeting of that body of a resolution passed by that body praying for the appointment of N K McKinstry as special policeman in order to check the disturbances created by hoodlums at the meetings of that body On motion of Bartel the prayer was granted.

Awaiting an Owner —A horse collar and bridle are now at the police headquarters which were stolen by John Thompson alias Garvey sometime Saturday Chief Lappeus desires the owner to prove property and claim the same.

Insane Patients — Two brothers named Thomas Briner and George Briner aged respectively 38 and 40 years residents of Jackson county, were examined a few days ago on a charge of lunacy Both were adjudged insane and committed to the asylum

New Lodges.—Efforts are being made, with every indication of success, to organize lodges of A O U W at Dallas Lafayette Salem and Jefferson, in this state The order is increasing with amazing rapidity

Hand Mashed —Al Carter pressman of Himes' printing establishment, caught his right hand in some of the machinery and had one of the bones between the knuckles and wrist badly crushed

Arrested for Larceny —Saturday evening Officer Joseph Day arrested a man named John Thompson alias Garvey charged with larceny Thompson was charged with stealing three coats and a hat from one of the stores on First street Soon after the theft was committed Day found Thompson near the corner of Alder and First streets with the hat and one of the coats on He was considerably intoxicated at the time and gave the officer much trouble in escorting him to jail His case will be examined into to day He was just released from the county jail a few days ago where he served out a term of confinement for stealing a trunk from one of the wharves

Cherished Keepsakes —Officer Joe Day received on the last steamer a silver watch and chain from the brother of the late J M Metoy who resides in California The watch and chain belonged to J M Metoy who made a dying request that his brother would forward them after his death to Mr Day from whom he had received such kindness and attention during his long and painful illness He also asked to have several of his rings sent to the same friend Day treasures these keepsakes and will cherish them as sacred mementoes of poor Mac

Not Dead —The lad Johnny Mooney, who accidentally shot himself in the right thigh last Friday is not dead several papers to the contrary notwithstanding The little fellow is at St Vincent's Hospital where he is receiving every attention from the good kind sisters He was very low Friday night from loss of blood but is now very greatly improved and will soon be beyond danger

Coming to Portland —Mr Edgar Coursen of San Francisco a young violinist of much ability a graduate of the conservatory at Leipsic has written to friends here that he intends to visit Portland next month and make this city his future home

Excursion —Under the auspices of the Hall street M E church a grand excursion will be given to the Cascades next Saturday May 1st The steamer Ixaline has been chartered for the occasion and a pleasant time may be anticipated

PERSONAL

Mr Henry Villard and party returned Saturday evening from the upper Columbia and will go up the valley to day or to morrow

Archbishop Seghers will leave this week for Jacksonville where he expects to spend the first Sunday in May after which he will visit the mining regions wherever Catholics sojourn At the conclusion of his visit in this portion of the arch diocese the archbishop will cross the Cascade range into Eastern Oregon where he will visit military posts mining camps towns and settlements which he was unable to reach during his visit last fall This trip will consume several months so that the archbishop may not return to Portland until late in the year

Col H Clay Wood who for several years was adjutant general of the department of the Columbia, returned on the last steamer Col Wood was granted a furlough about two years ago with permission to go beyond the seas as his health was not good He returned to Washington and after remaining there some months sailed for Europe visiting Paris, London and other points of interest After his return from Europe he was detailed by the department for some duty in connection with the Indian reservation at Umatilla and has reported at headquarters Col Wood returns in excellent health and his physical appearance indicates that his extended tour has been of great benefit His many friends both in military and social circles will be gratified to learn of his return

Report of State Fair Committee on Wm Scheffler's Wines and Brandy.

To the Board of Managers of the Oregon State Fair for the year 1879—Dear Sirs Your committee appointed to report on the exhibit of wines and brandies do respectfully report that they have thoroughly examined and tested the Port Sherry and Amber Wines put on exhibition by Mr Wm Scheffler of St Helens, Napa county, Cal and that we have called in experts to aid of our judgment and would feel that we were doing Mr Scheffler great injustice did we simply report an exhibit of fine wines The committee feel that they should go much further and say we find an exhibit of really very superior wines which we feel justified in recommending to the confidence of all who have use for wines We have every reason to believe them pure and we can say for ourselves that they are delicious in their flavor

We have also tested Mr Scheffler's Sanitary (Vacuum Distilled) Grape Brandy and is pronounced by connoisseurs brought to our aid as being wonderfully smooth and inviting—and the fact that by the new process of distilling adopted by Mr Scheffler the brandy is freed from the fusil oils is a desideratum never before attained, as we believe and should and doubtless will make Mr Scheffler the leading brandy manufacturer on this coast We would recommend to all druggists a trial of this brandy and these wines And your committee would recommend the award of the society's diploma for Superior Brandy and Wines

THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA!

Read the following testimonials, not from persons 3000 miles away whom no one knows but from well known and trustworthy citizens of Oregon whose names, written with their own hands can be seen at our office

Harrisburg Oregon December 31 1879

The Oregon Kidney Tea has done my wife as much if not more good than any of the many remedies she has used for pains in the back and I believe it to be a good remedy for the diseases which it is recommended for A M COX

Harrisburg Oregon December 31 1879

Some three months ago I was attacked with a severe pain in my back I bought a package of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and by the time I had used one half of it was entirely relieved and have not been troubled since I cheerfully recommend it to all who may be suffering from a lame or weak back as a pleasant safe and good remedy

At 11 30 A M having accomplished our business in the city by the sea we embarked on the State of California and by the courtesy of the commander Capt Debney were made welcome to the [illegible] of this wonderful

Steam Clipper

During the passage we [illegible] Good Templars formed acquaintance with several others and renewed our friendship with those on board who were formerly [illegible] little steamship City of [illegible] Captain Thorn [illegible] very gracefully dipped his ensign to us which salutation we returned as we passed her by

A 6 30 P M we made fast to our dock in Portland having made the trip of 110 miles against an ebb tide and strong current in the remarkable time of Six Hours and Fifty Minutes.

We cannot say less than that success is assured to the enterprise that secures to the traveling public such elegant accommodations and such safe and rapid transportation as these companies afford

Two hundred and twenty miles of river travel in thirteen hours and fifty minutes is an average of [illegible] miles in a trifle over three and a half minutes Pretty good for Portland [illegible]

At 7 30 P M held regular Bethel prayer meeting a truly precious service As a fitting climax to this interesting day of labor the following letter received this evening from Hon H W Corbett who had previously given $500 for this object must speak for itself

Chaplain R S Stubbs—Dear Sir Yours of the 2d inst is duly received contents noted You are at liberty to put my name down for $200 for the Sailors Home I trust you may be very successful in the undertaking I am glad the annual meeting passed off so well Yours very truly

H W CORBETT

Dear friends of humanity ere you lay aside this leaf from the chaplain's log bear in mind we need to raise $8000 with which to build the Portland Mariners Home Fifty dollars constitutes a life member of the Portland Seamen s Friend Society All contributions will be gratefully received and acknowledged by CHAPLAIN STUBBS

TO THE FRONT.

Attention! Attention! Attention!

Is called to the fact that we have just received, per steamer State of California, a LARGE BANKRUPT STOCK purchased in New York by MR. J FRANKLIN at 50 cents on the dollar, and the way we intend to show you that what we say is so, and not merely bragging is by giving you a Price List that will astonish you all and if those figures are not the LOWEST in Oregon, we will stand aside and take a back seat. Competition is the life of trade, and there is so much competition in Portland that goods must be sold low to gain trade and owing to the facilities we have in having our own wholesale house in San Francisco at 18 and 20 Battery street, we will again state that our prices cannot be beat.

ENGLISH CROPS AND MARKETS.

The Mark Lane Express under date of April 21, reviews the situation of the crops and markets of Europe, and says: The somewhat [illegible] last week has not injured farmers, as spring sowing is about finished. The average acreage sown in grain is larger than usual, as the weather has been unusually favorable. The offerings of English wheat both in Mark Lane and the provinces have been very scanty and it is evident that reserves are extremely small in quantity. Most samples are very indifferent, and there has been a difference of 20 shillings per quarter between the highest and lowest quotations. Millers altogether ignored inferior samples, but fine parcels sold at previous rates, the decline in foreign not having affected English wheat. The bulk of the milling demand which has shown signs of improvement during the week, has fallen on foreign wheat. Imports both actual and prospective, have been too large to enable sellers to establish any advance. All varieties have gone steadily into consumption at last Monday's decline of 1s to 2s on American and 1s on Russian. The abundance of American will not between now and harvest more than counterbalance the deficiency here. Prices will probably be influenced by speculative operations in American grain centers, but the principal considerations in the future will be the weather. Trade closed dull and a further reduction was necessary to effect sale in wheat and maize. Arrivals off coast large which, coupled with favorable weather and lower prices from America caused depression. Wheat has fallen two to three shillings per quarter, the larger reduction being on white descriptions. Maize sold steadily; closing, however, sixpence lower on the week. Wheat for shipment also two to three shillings lower, but neither inquired for nor freely offered at the decline. Maize receded sixpence to ninepence, but business was most restricted. Sales of English wheat last week, 25,586 quarters at 45s 11d per quarter, against 65,540 quarters at 41s 4d per quarter for the corresponding week last year. Imports into the United Kingdom for the week ending the 10th inst., 1,328,799 hundred weights wheat, 17[illegible] hundred weights flour.

Liverpool Breadstuffs Market.

LIVERPOOL, April 24 —A leading grain circular says that during the past few days the provincial wheat market reports an improved tone, with a partial recovery from recent depression. The comparatively low prices of cargoes and off coast have tempted buyers, and there has been large business, with a shilling to two shillings of recent depression recovered. At Liverpool since Tuesday there has been moderate business in wheat at a penny over Tuesday's prices. This morning there was only small attendance. Millers, influenced by fine weather, purchased sparingly, but business done was generally at an improvement of a penny to two pence on Tuesday's full prices. Flour was in moderate demand and slightly dearer. Corn was very dull at a decline of about two pence.

The Boston Wool Market.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.)

BOSTON, April 24. — Wool the past week was rather remarkable in trade, sales of domestic having been only 232,000 pounds, which are the smallest on record for many years, but with the sales of foreign, transactions for the week aggregate 1,300,100 pounds, which on an exceedingly dull market, is about all that could be expected. Sales can only be forced at lower prices, but so far there is very little disposition to force sales. New California spring, 37½@38½c; fall, 81@82c.

Catarrhal
D SCA

Wel De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh, explains the following important facts:
1. That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local and finally constitutional.
2. That, being constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.
3. That impurities in the nostrils are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and Genito-urinary organs.
4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhoea, Bronchitis, Leucorrhoea, and Consumption.
5. That Smokes, Douches, Inhalations and Insoluble Snuffs, cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organs named.
6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative affinity for, and the quality of being absorbed by, the purulent mucous wherever located.
Based upon these plain theories, Dr. Wel De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony:
W. D. WOODS, 487 Broadway, N. Y., Cured of Chronic Catarrh.
F. J. HASLETT, 859 Broadway, N. Y., 4 yrs Catarrh.
G. L. BRUSH, 413 Broadway, N. Y., 15 yrs Catarrh.
S. BENEDICT, Jr., Jeweler, 697 Broadway, N. Y., (Holy friend), cured of Chronic Hay Fever
MRS. EMMA C. HOWES, 30 W. Washington Square, N. Y., cured of 30 years Chronic Catarrh.
REV. GEO. A. REES, 120 Jay St., Brooklyn, "It restored me to my ministerial labors."
REV. CHAS. J. JONES, New Brighton, S. I., "Worth ten times the cost."
REV. ALEX. FREES, Cairo, N. Y., "It has worked wonders in six cases in my parish."
L. F. NEWMAN, 303 Fulton St., Brooklyn, cured of 6 years Chronic Catarrh.
MRS. J. SWARTZ, Jr., 330 Warren St., Jersey City, cured of 18 years Chronic Catarrh.
&c. &c. &c. &c. &c.
A real cure for this terrible malady, is the most important discovery for the relief of human suffering, since vaccination. Wel De Meyer's Catarrh Cure is sold by all Druggists, or delivered by D. B. DEWEY & Co., 46 Dey St., N. Y. for $1.50 a package. To Clubs, six packages for $7.50. Dr. Wel De Meyer's Treatise, with full explanations and overwhelming proofs, is Post-paid and sent free to anybody.

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.
He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the
FOLLIES OF YOUTH,
SUCH AS SPERMATORRHŒA OR SEMINAL WEAKNESS or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring either directly or indirectly, from some derangement in the sexual system and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.
It is now that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, while death becomes a welcome messenger to relieve them out of their miserable existence.

SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.
MIDDLE AGED MEN,
There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Death of a Distinguished Soldier.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Gen. Joseph W. Revere, grandson of the famous Paul Revere, [illegible] to the Pacific squadron which took possession of California, died yesterday, aged 68, of neuralgia of the heart. Revere was the officer who first raised the American flag in California north of San Francisco bay. He commanded a brigade during the late war and was in several important battles. California pioneers here will take part in the funeral obsequies.

A Sensible Comment from the New York "Sun."

The Sun says under the head of "Folly from Beginning to End:" It was folly for DeYoung to print in his paper any scurrilous abuse of a private individual. It was folly for the Rev. Isaac S. Kalloch to proclaim an infamous falsehood about the DeYoung family. It was folly for DeYoung to shoot Kalloch. It was folly for Kalloch's son to shoot and kill DeYoung. DeYoung has died as the fool dieth. Young Kalloch may be executed for his crime. He may be only imprisoned or on some ground he may be set free. In any event he bears for life the hand of a murderer. From beginning to end it is all a very foolish and bad business.

Fatal Accident.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Three workmen were fatally injured to-day by a falling scaffold on Eighth street.

Railroad Accident.

PETERSBURG, Va., April 25.—A working train on the Norwalk and Petersburg railroad was thrown from the track last night near Ivers station, and Capt. Baker and Spencer Jones were killed. The engineer and fireman were injured.

Marine Disasters.

NEW YORK, April 22.—The bark Sea Breeze from Rotterdam brings the captain and crew of the abandoned brig Annie Wharton, and reports the captain and first mate of the brig Dartagnan washed overboard and an unknown bark sunk during a hard snow squall, winds preventing assistance.

Title to Mineral Lands Settled.

KANSAS CITY, April 22.—Information was received here to-day from Washington by the president of the Ouray Discovery and Mining Co. that the secretary of the interior has decided the North Leadville case vs. Town Site, and in favor of the Ouray company. This determines in favor of the mining company the title to a large tract of very valuable mineral lands in and around Leadville.

An American Exchange Company.

NEW YORK, April 24.—An American exchange, owned and managed by Americans, has been established in England with a branch office here to accomodate travelers to and from Europe, forward letters, baggage, etc. The capital stock is $1,000,000, half of which has been subscribed. The wealthiest men of the principal cities of the union are stockholders and officers. They absorb the business of Henry F. Gillig & Co., Strand, London. Gen. Hanley is president and M. Gillig, general manager.

Probably an Idle Rumor.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 23.—Considerable comment was excited to-day by a story regarding the steamer Tropic, said to have cleared from here with a cargo of munitions of war for Cuban insurgents. President Montejo, of the Cuban Society here, flatly denies the whole story. The owners of the vessel say they cannot be held responsible for their passengers and freight, but have not knowingly embarked contraband goods. The ship's manifest shows a cargo of flour, corn, beef and shingles.

A Boom for Kearney.

NEW YORK, April 24.—John Swinton, in a letter to the Irish World proposes that a great and expressive meeting be held to express sympathy with Denis Kearney, sent to prison through the most shocking perversion of justice, and under circumstances of piratical cruelty. The editor replies that arrangements are now making to hold such a meeting. Three gentlemen of the Irish World joining with Swinton in defraying the expenses of having Cooper Institute for the purpose.

Death of Children.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Thirteen children among the passengers of the steamship Ohio, from Bremen, died during the voyage.

Reception to Sherman at New York.

NEW YORK, April 23.—A reception tendered to Secretary Sherman to-night was attended by a large number of influential citizens.

Memphis on the Lookout for Fever.

MEMPHIS, April 24.—The board of health has quarantined tropical fruits unless inspected under prescribed rules.

Reduction in Freight Rates.

CHICAGO, April 24.—Grain rates from Missouri river to Chicago and St. Louis have been heavily reduced to-day, the reduction amounting in some cases to 9 cents per hundred pounds.

Gold Fever in Georgia.

ATLANTA, April 24.—The gold fever is spreading, especially in White county. The Lumsden brothers, at Vocoochee, have taken out 2700 pennyweights in nuggets from 80 square feet of earth, at a total expense of $65. From a pocket 30 inches square they gathered 212 pennyweights in small nuggets. Another party that has struck the same lead, look out before they began to clean up, a nugget that weighed 106 pennyweights, and several others not quite so heavy. Great excitement prevails.

Thurman Claims Virginia and Kentucky.

Senator Thurman believes that the Virginia delegation will support him at Cincinnati. He also expects the Kentucky delegation.

Columbus Solid for Sherman.

COLUMBUS, April 24.—The republicans of this county elected a solid Sherman delegation to-day.

Grant Work and Speculation.

CHICAGO, April 24.—Secretary Bartlett, of the Blaine Club of Washington, telegraphs that Blaine has 8 delegates in the Virginia and 15 in the Georgia delegation. Blaine's friends here claim that if this is correct Gen. Grant cannot hope to get a majority in the Chicago convention, no matter if he gets all [illegible] claimed for him.

Great Forest Fires in New Jersey.

FORKED RIVER, April 24.—Over 300 families are made utterly destitute by great forest fires. The berry industry is gone.

The Indian Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The senate sub committee on the Indian appropriation bill will report it to the full committee Monday, and upon recommendation of Secretary Schurz and Commissioner Trowbridge, will advise an increase of certain amendments granted by the house, and supply commissions affecting small tribes and specified agencies.

The West Point Business.

WEST POINT, April 24.—G. Kemble testified that he saw three men walking erect like cadets and acting suspiciously at the Highlands on the night of the outrage. They kept looking back from West Point. He described them.

Henry D. Bomp, a graduate of 1876, testified that colored cadets in his time were ignored but not "deviled" in any way. Cadet Smith (colored) was reported every time there was an opportunity because he was disagreeable every way and the cadets wanted to get rid of him.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Carson Mint.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Several persons appeared before the house committee to-day to urge the claims of different cities in the [illegible] whether it is proposed to [illegible] the mint from Carson. R. M. Daggett, member of the house from Nevada, was heard by the committee in behalf of retention of the mint at Carson City in that state, and [illegible] opposed the proposition of dismantling the mint there and removing the machinery to some point in the Mississippi valley. He admitted, however, that owing to the excessive charges of the express companies for the transportation of silver coin, the products of the mines of Nevada were shipped to bullion to the San Francisco mint and there refined, and the coin shipped to Washington and New York cheaper than if shipped from Carson, though Carson is 300 miles nearer Washington and New York than San Francisco. This was the only reason he could give for the failure of the government to obtain a sufficient supply of bullion at the Carson City mint to keep it running twelve months in the year instead of three months as at present.
